

PeaceWiseKids Support Officer

Be part of helping children and young people learn life-changing peacemaking and relational skills!

- Put your professional skills and faith into action through providing outstanding support to our PeaceWiseKids and PeaceWiseYouth customers
- Learn how to onboard schools, church and family users through our online Learning Management System
- Be part of a dynamic and growing team who love Jesus, strong relationships and having fun as well!

About PeaceWise:

PeaceWise is a cross-denominational peacemaking ministry which operates within Australia and is beginning to operate overseas as well.

PeaceWise's purpose is: 'Promoting peace and reconciliation in relationships through biblical principles and the power of Christ.' As our logo says – we are all about “building peacemakers for life”.

In the last 5 years, PeaceWise has developed Bible-breathed, world-class, online and in-class resources to teach these principles to children and young people from Kindergarten through end of school and beyond.

About the position:

In this position, you will bring your strong desire to serve and support others into a key customer support role to ensure PeaceWiseKids and PeaceWiseYouth users get the most out of our courses and are able to use them with students efficiently and for maximum impact.

You need excellent oral and written communication skills, be very good with technology and be able to work with accuracy and under time pressure (often people need a quick turnaround for the issue they are contacting us about).

You will be personable, a committed Christian and able to work well with others. Plus a sense of humour is great too!

This part time role requires a minimum 4 hour weekly time commitment, split over two days. The role can be done from home (if you want to save travel) or the office (if you like in person interaction) – or both.
