

"Blessed are the peacemakers for they will be called children of God."
Matthew 5:9

PeaceWise

- Do you wish your organisation had a healthier relational culture?
- Would you love to have more confidence to respond in healthy positive ways in conflict?
- Are you looking to help children and youth have healthier, stronger lifelong relationships?

building peacemakers for life

We are a Christian, cross-denominational, not-for-profit peacemaking ministry

PeaceWise is all about providing biblical answers to questions just like this, and giving fresh hope in navigating hard times within relationships and communities. We serve Christian ministries and workplaces, church denominations, and anyone who needs help resolving conflict using Christian principles.

our vision

To see vast numbers of people passionately living and sharing Jesus' promise: "Blessed are the peacemakers".

our purpose

Promoting peace and reconciliation in relationships through biblical principles and the power of Christ.

who is a peacemaker?

PeaceWise seeks to build peacemakers. A peacemaker is someone who is equipped to bring peace to conflict, restoration to damaged relationships and the hope of Jesus to difficult situations.

what we do

We help individuals, organisations, schools and communities, learn life-changing biblical peacemaking principles and build cultures of peace.

how PeaceWise might serve you

"Conflict is messy and inevitable, but it doesn't have to be terminal. PeaceWise is the best tool I know that equips people to respond confidently and consistently, through a God honouring approach to conflict and relationship breakdown."

- Paul Arundell
Principal at Dubbo Christian School

training for adults & communities

Every adult is called to learn to be a peacemaker - Jesus himself calls us to this work. We can learn it for ourselves, and then build it into the culture and relationships within our schools, church or workplace.

training for young people

Teaching 4-25 year olds how to be peacemakers - to strengthen relationships with each other, their communities and God. Our age-appropriate courses are Bible-breathed, practical, fun, professional and mapped to Australian School curriculum outcomes.

- Check out our website to find the courses best suitable for your school, church or family

coaching and mediation

Providing assistance in a current conflict through:

- One-on-one coaching that helps you plan a God-pleasing response to conflict.
 - Mediation that helps two or more people to address relational and material issues using a Christian mediation process.
